

Going on holiday...

types of holidays:

They vary according to the length or the purpose of the holiday

means of transport:

the vehicles that you use to reach a destination

Holiday

(US-vacation):

a period of time when you're not at school or at work

accommodation:

a place where you can stay/live

destination:

a place where you choose or want to go

Types of holiday

✦ According to the length:

A visit/an excursion

An outing

A day out/ a day trip

A break/getaway: (e.g. a weekend break)

A tour

✦ According to the purpose:

Adventure holiday/trip/etc.

Expedition/discovery

Exchange

A fly-drive (organized trip with flight, a car and an accommodation)

Package tour

Road trip

Sightseeing

Cruise

Honeymoon

Means of transport

- ✦ Air travel -> plane, aircraft
- ✦ Public transport -> train, bus/coach, underground/subway
- ✦ Road travel -> car, minivan, caravan/camper, moped/motorcycle,
- ✦ Sea travel -> ferry, (cruise) liner

Accommodation

- ✦ Apart hotel
- ✦ Hotel -> double bedroom, single bedroom, twin bedroom
- ✦ Bed & breakfast
- ✦ Campsite/camping -> tent, sleeping bag
- ✦ Cottage (in the country)
- ✦ Hostel -> dormitory
- ✦ Resort
- ✦ Guest house (run by a family)
- ✦ Hut (in the mountains)

Destinations and activities

- ✦ Seaside (beach) -> swimming, sunbathing, diving
- ✦ Mountains -> activity camp, hiking, climbing, winter sports
- ✦ Historic sites/cities -> museums, churches, castles, ruins, etc.
- ✦ Gastronomic tours -> farms, food factories, etc.