

10 ways to improve your recycling

1. If something is broken,	A. if you really want to eliminate waste and the need to extract more virgin material
2. Learn what you can or can't recycle,	B. if you use a biodegradable soap
3. Buy recycled,	C. if you want to properly nourish the soil of your garden
4. If you know Green artists,	D. if you want to discourage companies from "fake feel-good recycling"
5. Recycle your water (maybe in your garden),	E. if you really want to save the planet
6. Recycle your greenery (composting),	F. try to fix it before throwing it away
7. Recycle your electronic devices,	G. offer to provide supplies for their works of art
8. If you buy any product,	H. if they are broken or you don't need them anymore
9. If you don't love something (clothes, books, accessories, etc.),	I. don't throw it away), but donate it to a charity
10. Try to teach younger generation the importance of recycling,	J. prefer a model that can be easily upgraded (when it's an electronic device) or a product with a packaging that can be reused.